OUR ROUND ABOUT POCKET. -Yesterday, although the wind was rather to cool for comfort, was a pleasant day overhead.

-Mayor Lansden has called a specia meeting of the city council in joint session to meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock. -The old reliable firm of R. Smythe & Co., are daily receiving fresh invoices to their already immense stock of wines. liquors, and cigars. -An effort was made yesterday to get up a horse race. It was no go, however, and an opportunity to see one of the best horses in the country "git" over the ground was lost. -The Chicago Sun, published by H. L. Goodall, is one of the nestest papers typographically published in the west, and its columns are crowded with the latest and spiciest news.

-The colored people of the city held a meeting in the African Methodist church last night to make arrangements for celebrating "emancipation day." What action was taken we did not ascertain. -The sociable at the parsonage of the Presbyterian church, last night, was well James E. Maxley, Louisville, Ky.; R. E. atttended. All enjoyed themselves, and when the time came for breaking up, departed for their homes feeling that it was

"was good to be there." -A fellow who had taken just enough boomernickle to make him feel right happy, laid down on the side-walk on Washington Avenue last night, and "made sent over to serenade McHale.

-Mr. Thos. M. Logan, deputy sheriff Jas O'Brien, D. W. Morris and P. Gearhart all of Jackson county, arrived in the city on Wednesday evening, en route south with a drove of horses and mules. Among the horses were some very fine stock.

-George Francis Train wants an agent in this city to canvass for subscribers for his new paper, the Omaha Train Lique. The gentleman who accepts the agency must be for George Francis for the next President of the United States. No other need apply.

Our merchants have received their goods for the fall and winter trade. The people should know where to find these goods, and the way to impart that infor. mation is through the columns of the

-The demireps of the city are heaping curses, both loud and deep, upon the head of chief Myers. It has gone forth that it is the intention of the chief of police, on the first day of January next, to pull each and all of the houses of ill-repute and punish the inmates to the utmost extent of the law.

-The ball for the benefit of the German school, to be held at Scheel's hall on the evening of the 26th, promises to be a splendid affair. The committee of arrangements are leaving no stone unturned to make it one of the grandest balls of the season. It is hoped and expected that every well-wisher of the German school

-Jas. Kypaston the popular Fourth ward butcher, at the corner of Nineteenth and Poplar streets, is acknowledged to keep the best meats to be found in the city. On his recent trip to St Louis, he purchased as fine a lot of young, market, two of which he will butcher for Christmas. He sells the very best of beef at from five to twelve and a half cents per pound. He has mutton, veal, and pork equal to any found in the city, and it will be sold as low as the lowest. Remember the place, corner Nineteenth and Poplar

-A lad about ten years of age nearly cried his eyes out" yesterday afternoon at the trick of the passenger train locomotive. The lad had a nice bright silver ten cent piece, and was of the opinion that the weight of the locomotive would spread it out to the dimensions of a quarter. He laid it on the rail in advance of the train and awaited the result. The lopicked up the dime on one of its wheels, and flung it nobody knows whither. The boy bellowed most heartily, and is firmly convinced that the Illinois central is, by odds, the meanest railroad of which he has any knowledge.
